The New York Institute for Psychoanalytic Self Psychology

Invites you to an

OPEN HOUSE – May 3, 2009

Join us for dialogue on the benefits of training in Self Psychology

Meet faculty, graduates and students

NYIPSP offers:

- A four year psychoanalytic training program
- A two year program in psychoanalytic psychotherapy
- A one year post certificate psychoanalytic program
- A one year program for licensed mental health professionals
- A treatment/referral service

The institute provides course work and supervision with a focus on the self psychological theory and technique of Heinz Kohut. Classical psychoanalytic theory is studied, as well as the works of contemporary theorists, with an emphasis on understanding the distinction between theories.
